

How do you get to church? What do you see on the way there? On Sunday Kupa gets up when it's still dark outside. She helps her mom make breakfast and get her sisters ready for church. Then they walk. They walk down dirt roads and cut through corn fields. They see a temple being built and hear birds singing. At church Kupa gets to rest and think about what she knows and feels. Though she is nervous, she feels inspired to share what is in her heart.
